Why the distribution conditions and restrictions will make it more likely that the customers who acquire the product are in the target market

The distribution conditions will make it likely that customers who acquire the product are in the target market because all customers who acquire the product will have:

- warnings or questions about key attributes and key limitations of the product which are material to whether customers are in the target market, or
- personal advice.

General advice

This condition applies to general advice (including most marketing)

Distribution conditions

| Distribution methods | Suitability |
|--|--------------------|
| Approved advertising for trustees of SMSFs | Suitable |
| In person recommendations to access marketing material | Suitable |
| Other issuer approved communication channels (including telephone, email and social media) | Suitable |

Why the distribution conditions and restrictions will make it more likely that the customers who acquire the product are in the target market

These conditions are appropriate as the target market is trustees of SMSFs.
